SEVERE WEATHER UPDATE FOR JUNE 20, 2024 AT 1:00 P.M.

ROCKPORT, TX – Tropical Storm Alberto made landfall in Mexico late last night. Although the Tropical Storm has passed, we will continue to receive scattered showers throughout the day Thursday and into Friday and possibly into the weekend. High Tides continue to cause Street Flooding in low lying areas with waves coming over the roads along Bay facing areas. We will continue to monitor forecasts for updates and alerts as they occur.

Below is a list of streets that remain closed due to flooding. Drivers SHOULD NOT attempt to drive in these areas unless it is absolutely necessary. If you must, please drive slowly as to not cause further damage by pushing water & debris into homes or businesses.

Bayshore Drive                      Business 35 South – from Market Street South toward 188

East Corpus Christi Street      East First Street

East Hackberry Street          East King Street

East Second Street              East Third Street

Fulton Beach Road – from Maple Street to the Harbor Oaks Bridge & Fulton Beach from Traylor to Fulton Ave. including Henderson intersection

Sixteenth Street                  South Austin Street

South Magnolia                  Water Street.

The City of Rockport urges everyone to heed the weather advisories. DO NOT go around Barricades, and remember to turn around, don't drown.
